

Robert ('Bob') Gorzynski - Brief Biography

Bob Gorzynski is the Founding Partner of Wilde Geese Partnership and specializes in developing strategic thinking and leadership. He is also Founder and Director of the Centre for Strategic Thinking (www.spiritofstrategy.org) and a guest lecturer at a number of universities including Bristol and Gloucestershire Universities.

He is the author of several books on strategy, business ethics and sustainability including 'Freedom From Fear, The Mantle of Strategic Leadership', 'The Strategic Mind' and 'Strategy Express'. He is currently writing two further books, one on the practical application of strategic thinking and a more light-hearted one on the adventures of his faithful Wiltshire terrier!

Over the last 20 years Bob has enjoyed juggling the demands of self-employment, teaching and writing with being an active parent and finding space for his own spiritual journey. In addition to his commercial work, Bob has also worked in a supporting strategic role within many social enterprise, voluntary and community organizations. He believes passionately in developing strategies for a sustainable future and building bridges between different communities. He has fallen on his face many times and refuses to give in.
