

David Wragg BA FCA

David is a fully qualified practicing Chartered Accountant with over 25 years experience in the Family Business sector. Being a partner in the top 20 firm of accountants means that David works closely with a range of family owned organisations.

David is closely involved with advising families in business from all sectors of the economy. Succession, governance and financial structuring are among David's key areas of operation, and he is comfortable with working with several generations of the family business stakeholders.

David is a senior member of the Bristol Business Advisory group at Saffery Champness. David also heads the Family Business team at the Bristol Office of Saffery Champness and works closely with the International Centre for Families in Business. Saffery Champness is a recognised leader in the field of Landed Estates and private Wealth, this gives David a unique insight into family business issues.

