

Jim Marshall

Jim is a highly experienced and commercial non-executive director and business advisor.

Prior to building a portfolio of interests he has over 25 years successful experience as a senior director in the UK, mainland Europe, and the USA. He has successfully led a considerable number of acquisitions from negotiation to completion.

Jim currently sits on boards of three companies, is an associate of I.C.F.I.B. and Catalyst Venture Partners, and particularly enjoys the challenges of working with SME management teams, including family businesses.

Jim is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants and holds a Masters Degree in Business Administration (Marketing).

In addition to a broad experience in general management Jim's specialties include: business strategy and planning; corporate finance; mergers and acquisitions; financial management; corporate governance; and family businesses.
