

Nick Smith - ICFIB Consultancy CV

Nick has worked closely with ICFIB for 10 years in connection with a number of consultancy projects, training and education programmes for family businesses and advisors. He is a regular contributor to family business publications and conferences and was recognised as a Fellow of the Centre in 2008 for his commitment and contribution to the family business field.

Nick has been involved in a number of initiatives in the family business field including the Association of Family Business Advisors, the UK Family Business Alliance and the Bristol Family Business Community.

A lawyer by profession Nick leads the Family Business Team at Veale Wasbrough Vizards specialising in providing governance, succession planning, restructuring and dispute resolution support to family owned businesses.

By background a corporate lawyer Nick has over 25 years experience acting on a variety of transactions involving the sale, acquisition, funding and restructuring a range of businesses. Rated as an expert in leading legal directories he was previously the Chairman of the Mergers and Acquisitions Special Interest Group of the Association of European Lawyers.